Death Wish?

(Philippians 1:21-23)

Did the Apostle Paul have a death wish? After reading this passage from the letter to the Philippian church, some may believe Paul wished to die. Writing from a Roman prison he penned, "For to me, to live is Christ, and to die is gain." (Philippians 1:21) He would go on to say in the following verses that he was conflicted in his desire to be with Christ, which would be far better, or remain alive in order to serve the dear saints for which he felt so deeply. But if we take a contextual look at the first chapter of Philippians, we can see the confidence that Paul possessed. "For I know that this will turn out for my deliverance (salvation) through your prayer and the supply of the Spirit of Jesus Christ." (v. 19) From his dire situation, the inspired apostle could see the big picture.

Just as Paul could visualize God's plan for his life, you and I can experience the understanding of an abundant life in Christ. (John 10:10) Upon obedience to the gospel message, we gain the confidence and knowledge of our forgiveness and salvation. (1 John 5:13) Of course we must be realist and face the fact that all must die and stand before God in the judgment. (Heb. 9:27) But the journey toward the certainty of death does not have to be a miserable one. From the words of Jesus to the epistles, we can learn to experience a life of the joy, peace, and anticipation of being with Christ. No, this is not morbid nor is it a death wish. But rather we are looking forward into the future to an almost unimaginable and unending heavenly life with God.

Bible Bowl Home Studies

Today the Pippin family is hosting the Bible Bowl Home Study here at Holladay, immediately after morning services.

Bible Bowl contestants should study 2 Samuel chapters 13-16 before NEXT Sunday's Home Study.

There are still TWO Sundays (August 18th & 25th) open that we need adults to sign-up (sheet is in the foyer) to host the Home Studies. You can host right here at the building & just supply lunch.

If you can plan about 30 minutes of games, that'd be great, but if you host at the building they can play on our wonderful playground.

Be of good courage, and let us be strong for our people and for the cities of our God. And may the LORD do what is good in His sight."

A PRAYER FOR THE FIRST DAY OF SCHOOL

Dear LORD,

-  Open my eyes to see new friends.
-  Open my ears to hear my teacher.
-  Open my mind to learn new things.
-  Open my hands to help others.
-  Open my mouth to speak kind words.
-  Open my heart to love like YOU.

I know YOU are always with me when I'm at school!

In Jesus' name, AMEN!

Congratulations to Jace Randolph!

Proud grandparents, Tommy & JoAnn Randolph, are pleased to announce that Jace graduates from Marine Basic Training on August 9!!

Show
Our
Homebound
Some Love!

Pray for them daily: Pray for the homebound person AND their caregivers.
Communicate regularly: Contact them by phone, email, text, or letter, depending on what they're comfortable with. Send them a 'thinking of you' card.
Visit them: This can give caregivers respite time. Consider playing games or watching a movie with them. You can arrange visits at a time that's convenient for both of you.
Offer assistance: Run errands for them, offer transportation to appointments/etc, help with household chores, lawn care, car repairs, or other tasks you can do.
Bring them a meal: Find out what food they like best & make it for them. Bring them a meal from their favorite restaurant. Bring them a little snack or dessert to share with them.

We extend our sympathy to the family of Bill Poston, Bill is the uncle of our Brenda Ransom. Funeral on Thursday (Aug 8) at 11am. Sympathy also extended to Ann Wylie on the passing of her aunt, Vida Frizzell. Funeral was August 2nd.

PLEASE NOTE: EAST Fellowship door is closed until further notice for handicap ramp work.
